7. Does the company hold a current Home Warranty Insurance Certificate of Eligibility?

Home Warranty Insurance is required to be obtained where the contract price is over $20,000 and includes building works. This is not applicable for the supply of the Kit only where the customer is completing and/or managing the works as an Owner Builder.

Konjenga Pty Ltd t/a Sydney Sheds and Garages does not hold eligibility for Home Building Compensation Fund insurance and continues to work with the government regulator to obtain this. As such, contracts over the value of $20,000 where Sydney Sheds and Garages is contracted to complete the works will need to be completed as an Owner Builder.

This means that the customer is responsible for all contractors and all work being done as part of this project. It does not mean that the customer has to perform the works. Sydney Sheds and Garages will manage and complete all contracted aspects of the project.

Further information and links to NSW Fair Trading pertaining to being an Owner Builder are provided at the end of this document.

8. Are the standard foundation design costs covered in your quote, including excavation and earthworks?

Some companies providing prices on behalf of their contractors will often quote the contractors standard base price. Items you presume are included won't be and will be added to your price by the contractor on site.

Sydney Sheds and Garages will quote a set price to complete your concrete works. This price includes all machine hire and labour hire, for a standard site to within 300mm out of level and access for machines.

Footing design will be as per the Spec Sheet included within your quotation.

If required, the hire of a concrete pump is an additional charge unless stated otherwise on the quotation.

Where the site is not standard all required works will be quoted as a fixed cost. This may include excavation, retaining, peg out/location survey, Sydney Water asset survey, sewer encasement, additional piercing for sewer Zone of Influence and geotechnical reports for soil type.

9. Is the deposit required within the legal limit?

The limit is 10% for work costing $20,000 or less, or 5% for work costing more than $20,000.

Your initial deposit payment with Sydney Sheds and Garages will be 5% or 10% depending on your contract value.

10. Does the company hold a valid ABN, and is it registered for GST (If required)?
